How. James Stat., Chairman, Dear Sir: I have been abscut from home and now answer your letter inviting me to attent your Mass Meeting. The state of my health, hough greatly improved, does not permit me to accept your invitation. I greatly regret it for . Acral reasons. I am very anxious to become per somality acquainted with so intelligent a people as form your District. The Gov more is safe, and what is equally important, I think your conditains of Congress than Mr. Scoffeld. The district of little fact were the least incessing, and my presence and give him a single vote, I would risk my . eath and mavel into his District to all kinn. It is quite certain that unless you go into the very hutuate of vice, where passery is born and bred, you will never see any in Paris. The boot black, from the peculiar manner of his occupation, appears to be on less familian terms with sogn and water than any other of the human family, and in England and America I olds his rage and dirt as perceptives. But the Paris boothack is a man; is always clad in unit rm, generally of blue plash, and any lady might almke hands with mann; is always clad in unit rm, generally of blue plash, and any lady might almke hands with in without gloves and without fear. His box is very large, and he carries a samp stool, which supercedes the necessity of ba unding on one leg during the process of pollashing. When asked what is due, they invariably haply, "wint you please." The lee is about live cents, but I tick once with a one-cent plece, to use how might show an in his wint, you please." Off went his hat—down wont his bow—and you might have supposed from his "merel monsier" that I had given him a frace. The workton also have a uniform, or rather they all diess alike with white pants and blue blooses. show that the Amendment is strictly in accordance with his views. Mr. Holden says:

"There is not a principle in any section of the proposed amendment which has not received, in some form or other, the approval of the President. If, therefore, our people agree with the President, and If they are disposed to earry out in good lath what they have already conceded (to say nothing of the respect which they owe to the low-making department of the Government), I can see no good reason why they should not settle this business finally and force they hading these guarantees in the National fundamental law. There was no time within sixty days after the surrender of Lee's forces when they would not have accepted such terms gradly." Program.

William S. Farnell against William Green and George Weaver. No case upon the calender of titls Cont thus content we much interesting this. The plaintiff is a prominent consoler of the Lockport bar; the defendants a druggist and his clerk. The action was brought to recover damages for negligently souding the wrong does in answer to a physician's prescription, by means of which the plaintiff nearly lost his life, and was compared to his bed a long time, and his constitution generally enticehied. In Cetater, 1865, Dr. S. T. Gink was called to prescribe for Mr. Fancel for some slight disorder, and directed a dose of mer area, or beanberry. The prescription was compounded by Weaver, the clerk, and taken by Mr. Fancell, with the most serious results. The action of the heart was diminished to an learning extent, cold sweats and spasma supervened, and terrible pains followed. Upon turned inquiry at the drug store, it was discovered that the dose sent was veration or grown helbebore, a very active poison, which is sometimes used it small quantities to decrease the action of the heart. The prompt administration of commendings as well and the fire of Mr. Faruell, but he recovered only after long sickness and greet suffering. Three questions were at Jason before the jury: First, was the prescription put up by the carry of the larges of helpes of mixing with the green of the larges of helpes of mixing with their and after the prescription put up by the content of the larges of helpes of mixing with their and after over the lifes of Mr. Faruell, but the green were the lifes of Mr. Faruell, but the prescription put up by the content of the larges of helpes of mixing with their and after the prescription of the larges of helpes of mixing with their and after the prescription and after the prescription and the second of the content of the larges of helpes of mixing with the prescription and the does and the content of the heart.

No such men [Copperheads] should have his support, we englit they to be supported by Mr. Johnson's friends the roghout the Northern Mates. He particularly instanced as a squelinean of tide objectionable class of men, Hiester Cippare, the Democratic conditates for Governor of Pennsylvanor, asylm that to ask any solider to vote for such a most, of at one time known disbyally, against another wit; had served four years in the Union army, with credit to himself and honell to his country, was a guess in-sult.—Change Republican.

The Workingmen's Meeting and the Copperhead Meeting.

The Geary Invincibles paraded with their torches and transparencies on Saturday evening and finally halted in front of the platform on the open square. A growd soon collected there, bucluding a large number of working men and land the meeting was 'organized by electing J. H. Baker Chairman, and E. W. Matthews and J. H. Downs Secretaries.

Mr John C. Bryan, of the firm of Bryan, Dil. lingbam & Co, was then called for and addressed the meeting. His remarks were directed particularly to the working classes, the meeting having en called for that object; and Mr. Bryan, al though not a professional speaker, did himself ample credit and fulfilled every expectation. He is himself a practical mechanicand manufacturer and understands the relative interests, influences the flimsy prejudices so easily excited and so recklessly employed in that connection by unsern-pulous demagogues in every political campuign. In Mr. Bryan's matter-of-fact, common sense speech of one hour, we believe be did more to counteract the transparent lies which compose the stock-in-trade of the Copperheads in their addresses to working men, than has been otherwise effected.

In perfect contrast with Mr. Bryan's remarks and the objects and character of the meeting which he addressed, was the performance at Bliss Opera House. There stood E. O. Perrin, a man of education and high professional distinction and yet one of the most notoriously unprincipled and characteriess demagogues that ever figured in the politics of the country. He stood there appealing to the prejudices of the people, and especially to the prejudices of the Irish and Gerans, just as he stood in New York and Boston, in the days of Know-Nothingism, appealing to Protestant prejudices against Catholicism, and inciting the people to burn down Catholic orphan asylums and convents and engage in a craade for the destruction of "Mother Church." Perrin is the expertest political acrobat that ever his "life, his fortune and his sacred honor" to the extermination of the Irish; now he has changed hobby and is consecrating his energies to the obliteration of the negroes; failing in that, as he chasses at the Dutch. But whatever this weather cock undertakes, he is incapable of accomplish ing anything where he is known; so instead o employing his matory in New York, they send him into the wilderness in the hope that he wil get beyond the reach of his record. We review him in another place. The Soldiers' Convention at Mendville.

To-morrow, Tuesday, is the day designated for the Mass Convention of the boys in blue a Meadville. It is expected that large delegation will be in attendance, from all parts of the coun ty, and the house cavaleads will probably exceed over 1,000.

Several distinguished speakers were secured at the Pittsburgh Convention, including General Thomas H. Johns, of California, Gen. Harriman of New Hampshire, Gen. Kirkpatrick and Hon Thomas Williams of Pittsburgh, Col. J. P. Dun can of Pioncer, and others.

All persons who desire to go from this city t particiente in the demonstration are requested report to Col. Cogswell at this office. If the delegation go on horseback, arrangements can be made for sending torches and transparencies,-We hope there will be a good turn-out.

Mr. Luke and family had been spending the evening at the house of a friend and on returning at ten o'clock, he found that not only had some bed-clothes, been stolen, bu shoes and other articles had been taken from the back stoop. We hope our police will keep a sharp lookout for these chaps.

ANOTHER CAMPAIGN TRACE.-The public are indebted to E. H. Chase, Esq., for the republica-tion, in circular form, of Gen. B. F. Butler's pecch, following the Resolutions, introduced by him in the Pittsburgh Convention, as challeman of the committee appointed for that purpose. It is a sterling campaign document, for it covers Rappahannock, was also there with his drum, the most important phases of the present controversy, and its conclusions are irresistable. The gave a long roll in a manner which awakened speech should be universally read, and we believe the community will appreciate these repeated instances of the patriotic liberality of our fellow it was altogether unsolicited. Goon JOKE .- A Clymer pole-raising occurred at Pleasantville on Friday, and Brown's band of this city furnished the music. After the pole was up, the Republicans bired the band and held a rousing meeting. Gon. Johns of California was present and addressed the people. We have a full report of the proceedings, which will appear RAILROAD ACCIDES . . Saturday morning three cars and the engine of the Cincinnati Express, on the A. & G. W. The accident resulted from one of the rails on the treatle-work being loose.

THE Farmers' Rail Road is now completed up to Petroleum Centre, and trains commenced running on Saturday morning last between Oil Cky and Petroleum Centre.

The Soldiers' National Convention. We have already given in great part the pro-seedings of the Pittsburgh National Convention, yet no newspaper report could adequately decribe the greatest demonstration in the political nuuls of the country. tuncee apart, were large flags, mottoes and trans-Perrin made, as usual, a good buneumbe speech Saturday night, but it could have no weight with intelligent reading men. It was of that clapap, spread eagle order that is always used by lemngogue orators to dazzle and mislead the neonle. Politics with Perrin is a trade—a game ile sees in it nothing more than a sellish and mercenary contest between the ins and outs for office. Having no convictious bimself, he cannot consolve that others can be actuated by prinpic. His forte lies in a ppealing to the passion and prejudices of men. He dodged the realisance of the campaign. He garbled facts. The burder of his harangue by in denouncing negro sufhage and stirring up trish prejudice against the neers. He forest to mention that Andrew John son in his first State paper-his letter to Governor Sharkey, of Mississippi, advocated negro suffinge, and lad promised that people. He claimed that Johnson had been consistent, but he failed to show in what way or what instance he had kept his pledge to make treason odious and punish traitors.

Petrin had nothing to say about the amend ment of the Constitution which Congress favors and the President rejects and denomees, especlally that clause that places representation the South on the same basis as at the North, so as to destroy the preponderance of Southern Representatives in the National Congress. He en tered into a vindication of Grant as Though the General had endorsed the President's policy and was nonased to Congress, when he well knew to endorse the President's course, but lest his accompanying the President on his late trip should be construed as a proof of his sympathy with Julin-on, he had taken the pains to write a letter and state he went with the President as 4was compelled to do by the rules of the army when requested by the President, who is it communder-in-chief. Petrin 25-0 very conven-iontly forgot the remark of Grant about Clymer was an insult to the soldier to ask blue to vote for Clymer, a notorion. Copperhead during the war. One would think from Perrin's speech that we had no Peace party at the North during the war. But we have not time to-day to exposall the misrepresentations and fallagies of the few instances. Some of them were too glaring and shallow to deserve notice or complent. We shall have something to say hereafter about the record of the Seymours of New York and the the propriety of ferting more of such anteco deats and proclicities, and the party which they lend, to "reconstruct" the Interchel States and take possession of the government.

But we will only, in conclusion, express our deep detestation and disgret with the bloody and munit appeal to the lowest possions and prejudices with which this man Perrin closed his demagogue barangue. We do not refer now to the ungaboo of negro suffrage, upon which he diated for a full hour. He knows very well that that is not an issue in this canyass. It never car be an issue with us whether the freedings shall vote or not. It is not a National quostion, bu one for the States themselves to discuss and settle for themselves. Even Andrew Johnson blanself, when he advocated negro suffrage, proposed to make it depend apon property and intelli-Chief dustice Chase never took more adical ground than Johnson on this question Perrin, all through his speech, appealed to Re-publicans to give him a could bearing while be spoke the words of truth and soberness. Did be expect to make any converts of them by dodging the only questions at issue, and raising and dis cussing laise ones? What an insult to intelli-gent men! But the attempt of Perrin to inflance our Irish fellow-citizens, the laboring class against the colored population, was simply, in our opinion, infamous Equally contemptible and infunous, in our judgment, was the attempt of this sangulnary nobocrat a few years since to proscribe our Irisi fellow citizens on account of their religion and foreign birtl. His caricatures of Pat, priest ridden and fresh from the lags, as the delighter to paint ium, was just as felicitous then as his delinedtions of Sambo entering Congress arm in arm with Thad. Stevens were on Saturday night. He was very careful to tell the audience that he had been an old-line Whig and then a Democrat but he was especially careful to avoid the remot est allusion to the fact that he had been a Know Nothing. It was just such incendiary speeches as Perrin's the other night that produced the ne gro riots in New York during the wor, Competition in labor between whites and blacks can never produce a war of races in this country. History gives no examples of it. Political economy forbids it. The illimitable extant of the country, the endless variety of ladus trial interests, and, more than all, the extension of the principles of Christian civilization, will make it impossible. Riots and massacres may jollow-not, however from such competitionbut from the four of it-from passions inflamed by incendiary appeals like these. Mr. Perrin has recently returned from Georgia. He may so fin have forgot himself as to think the same style of argument and appeal would do for the citizens of Thusville as for the " while trash" of the South Not at all. He brought his sophistries, bla tricks in figures and his appeals to the wrong market. We may not be as intelligent and Christian a community as the city of New York

Some of McCalmont's supporters have denied the statement that he expressed the hope that General Lee might yet be a Major-General in the survivors of 1812 from both army and navy, the United States Army. The Meadville Republicant rending of letters and telegrams from distin-

There are criminal prosecutions and civil suits pending ugaints Hon. C. V. Culver, M. C., from this district, growing out of his late failures, and we regret to observe unweithy influences resort ed to to prejudice the public, and indirectly legal tribunals, against him. We have been shown ar anonymous' pamphict or circular—abounding with false and calumnions statements as we are rollably informed-which has been extensively gest over seen outside of New York. Such conduc. is contemptible, on the part equally of those who connive at it, and those who justigate it. We regret also to see an attempt made to mix

Mr. Culver's name in the political images of this district. Presuming upon the prejudices so generally excited by his disastrous thanclal collapse, the opposition are striving to identify Mr. Finney with Mr. Culver in such a way as to make the formerobnoxious. For example, Mr. Finney is charged with proceeding the nomination of Mr. Culver in 1864, when the fact is underliable that Mr. F. expressed to it own conferees the the reason that it surrende ed the principle of rolation to Venango county, and so changed the relative position of the several counties, as to create the very embarrassment under which the conference labored in nominating Mr. Culver's auccessor. Again, it has been charged that Mr. Finney was concerned with Mr. Cu'ver's financial transactions, and in that connection defrauded our own citizens-than which a more transparent, a more monstrous falsification was never published. But while correcting car cotemporaries w do not hesitate to confess that we have been led unwittingly lute error and misrepresentation. We were informed that Mr. Culver was a part owner of the Crawford Jennal, and that the editor of that paper was for acrly in the employ of Cuiver, Penn & Co. This statement is authoritatively contradicted, and we cheerfully make the correction. Mr. ℓ , would certainly be deserving of our sympathy, not to say pity, had he invested a cent in that sinking concern. are assured that Mr. Culver is audeviatingly true to the principles of the party which elected him. and will support its candidates for office. All affempts, therefore, to prejudice the public mind and the Union party against him on the ground that he is faithless to his party, an apostate and a bolter, are alike disingenuous and unmanly. For ourselves, while we cannot be accused of favoitism for Mr. Calver, we would even more currently resist the imputation of unjust pre udice against him. We called upon him to take its seat in Congress or resign the office, believe country remained that this district should have a epresentative at Wishington, and that his duties his creditors required Lun to give exclusive titention to their interests. That such an expeople at large, we have no doubt whatever, and that good buth to the party who elected him, and the community he was chosen to represent demands it, is not less our convenion to-day. Let us tope that Mr. Culver will yet comply with this im portant request, and that the rebond session of the XXXIXth Congress will be re-enforced by the commanding talents and the loyal rote of its youngest member, or his constituents be permitted to 60 his place with a representative who

Few cities are better supplied with hotels, yet on Tuesday morning no hotel lodglugs were to be had, and thousands of belated lelugates and visitors were rambling through the streets in search of private accommodations and gladly availing themselves of the cheerful ospitality so generously extended by the citizens to the "boys in blue." A vast number of the delegates who were unable to find admission to the notels were thus billeted on the citizens, but
